

TEST TECHNICIAN

April 2023

Position Summary

The Test Technician position will be located in our Auburn, AL corporate office. The Test Technician will possess strong organizational and problem-solving skills and have the ability to execute thorough evaluations of product features, supplying the engineering team with important information to resolve issues quickly and completely.

Outlined Tasks and Responsibilities

- Design and perform test plans.
- Design and execute long-term and automated tests.
- Use and/or develop validation tools.
- Use tools to load and test incremental firmware builds.
- Keep organized/detailed list of test actions.
- Report issues timely and concisely, communicating fine details thoroughly.
- Work closely with and take direction from the engineering team.
- Assess priorities and reallocate resources daily.

Abilities

- Strong organizational, prioritization, and time management skills
- Strong problem-solving skills
- Strong critical thinking skills
- Ability to use initiative in taking ownership of tasks, showing evidence of follow-through
- Ability to learn application-specific support tools
- Ability to learn Spectrum/Logic Analyzers and Scopes
- Ability to multitask and coordinate with other departments
- Assertive, teachable, and inquisitive

Educational Requirements and Experience

- Training in engineering, computer science, electronics, or technology preferred
- Experience in technical field preferred
- Experience in quality assurance preferred

Job type

- Full time

Required Work Authorization

- United States